

Connected Care:

Helping People Care for Their Animals

RSPCA NSW invites you to a practical forum discussing how we can

Port Stephens Medowie Community Centre 44 Ferodale Rd, Medowie

Wed 22 July 2026 - 9.30am-2.30pm

Why attend?

RSPCA NSW would like to share how we can connect you and your clients with support services for their animals. Many animal welfare issues can be avoided with early intervention.

Who is this for?

Councils, community service workers, housing providers and local government health professionals.

Who you'll hear from:

RSPCA NSW teams, including:

- Our Veterinary Social Worker, Brooke McGorry.
- Keeping Cats Safe at Home.
- Outreach and Education.
- Programs and Crisis Support.
- Access to Vet Care.
- Veterinarians

What you'll learn:

- Basic pet care: diet, desexing, vaccinations, exercise, rest and parasite prevention.
- Pet support: when and how to connect your clients with help.
- RSPCA NSW support: available programs and referral pathways.

What you'll take away:

- Clear, practical tips you can use in your role.
- A better understanding of support options available for vulnerable clients.
- Stronger connections with local animal welfare service providers.

SCAN TO JOIN

Let's work together to keep people and their animals healthy and safe.

This project has been assisted by the NSW Government through its Environmental Trust.